Edible and Ecological Landscapes

Presented by Mark Angelini and Trevor Newman, founders of Roots to Fruits

Wednesday, April 1, 2015

Doors Open @ 7:00 PM, 7:30 to 9:00PM Presentation and Q&A

St Daniel's Church, Cushing Center Hall (7010 Valley Park Dr, Clarkston)

Join us as we learn ways to make our landscapes more productive while nurturing ecological health. Discover techniques for integrating food production, waste management, rainwater harvesting, and other aspects of sustainable and regenerative land management. Mark and Trevor will share stories and examples from their years of experience in ecological landscape design.

The public is welcome and encouraged to attend this free North Oakland Wild Ones event (donations welcome to help bring future educational opportunities)!

Roots to Fruits is a permaculture design and edible landscaping firm that specializes in the planning and development of abundant, biodiverse, and durable human habitats. They work with homeowners, businesses, and farmers to develop ecologically regenerative and economically viable landscapes that produce a bounty of yields in the forms of food, medicine, enjoyment, and more.
